10th National Deafblind Conference to showcase works of art

An art exhibition of more than 30 pieces by artists who are deafblind will be showcased at The Usher Pre-conference Workshop and the 10th National Deafblind Conference from Tuesday, 15 November 2016 to Thursday, 17 November 2016 at the Esplanade Hotel, Fremantle.

Matthew Wittorff, Senses Australia's Manager Deafblind Services, says five artists from Perth and Melbourne have submitted their work to the exhibition, which will be available for purchase by the public.

"There is a wonderful collection of art, which we are looking forward to exhibiting. All of the artists who have submitted their work are all deafblind and monies from the sale of the artwork, will go back to the artists to enable them to continue to pursue their passion.

"We look forward to welcoming anyone who might be interested in viewing the art exhibition to the Southern Cross Lobby at the Esplanade Hotel, Fremantle. You don't need to attend the pre-conference workshop or conference to view these extraordinary pieces," says Matthew.

Senses Australia is a not for profit organisation which provides services to people of all ages, for all people with disability and has supported the Western Australian community for 120 years.

Both the workshop and conference will be held at the Esplanade Hotel, Fremantle. The art exhibition will include paintings, knitting, pottery and sculpture.
